

A BIG STEP FOR YOUR CAREER

KPMG Luxembourg is looking for forward-thinking and passionate people to make a difference to our clients, people and communities.

German Trainee Auditor (m/f)

Starting in October 2018 or January 2019

Your Role

This program involves a three to ten months placement in KPMG's Audit practice and provides you with hands-on opportunities to learn how a wide variety of organizations function and to play a role in reviewing their systems and processes. As a member of multilingual and multicultural teams, you will work on a diversified portfolio of international clients and receive on the job coaching as well as tailored KPMG training.

Your Opportunity

This is an ideal opportunity to gain solid technical knowledge. The position will give you excellent exposure to diverse assignments: in addition to statutory audit engagements, you will participate in due diligence and internal audit reviews as well as other specific missions.

Your Profile

You are preparing a degree in either Audit, Finance or Accounting. You are a team player, displaying a positive attitude and able to work efficiently and accurately under pressure. You are fluent in German and English.

These are big shoes to fill: are you ready for the next step?
